Penhaligons' Blenheim Bouquet fragrance

PENHALIGONS Meadham's Musk

PENHALIGONS has teamed up with Meadham Kirchoff to scent the label's autumn/winter 2011-12 show at London Fashion Week on Tuesday. The show will mark the fourth season for the designer and fragrance house hook-up, and will see the Topshop Show Space venue, models and clothes spritzed with Penhaligon's heritage fragrance, Blenheim Bouquet. First created in 1902 and inspired by Blenheim Palace, Blenheim Bouquet is a bracing mix of lemon, lime and lavender, with base notes of spicy black pepper and woody pine and musk for a traditional twist. Bracing yet traditional - shall we consider this a heads-up on what we'll see on the Meadham Kirchoff catwalk come Tuesday? Watch this space.
